TechCorr USA, LLC Acquires ACE Inspection Services

Houston, Texas, October 1st, 2007: TechCorr USA, LLC (TechCorr) has acquired ACE Inspection Services (ACE) located in Evanston, Wyoming. ACE Inspection Services, a privately held company, has been providing nondestructive testing and inspection services to oil and gas operators throughout the region for nearly fifteen years.

The acquisition of ACE now makes TechCorr one of the largest providers of energy inspection services in Wyoming and the north central States. "ACE is a highly established and recognized inspection and testing company ideally situated to take advantage of increasing oil and gas drilling activities within this region".

About TechCorr USA, LLC:

TechCorr is a leading supplier of conventional and advanced nondestructive testing, inspection and engineering services to the oil and gas production, refining, petrochemical & power industries worldwide. TechCorr offers it's clients on-stream inspectors, turn-around inspectors, mobile radiography laboratories, advanced ultrasonic testing, exchanger-condenser-boiler tube testing along with the exclusive in-service robotic tank cleaning and tank inspection business line.
